NEPALESE CANADIAN SOCIETY OF EDMONTON (NECASE)

WHO WE ARE?

Nepalese Canadian Society of Edmonton (NECASE), established in 1999 and registered in Alberta, is a community organization of people of Nepalese origin and their friends living in and around Edmonton, Canada.

Its main objective is developing and promoting Nepalese culture, arts, music, tradition and heritage. With the number of Nepalese members growing each year in Edmonton, NECASE is engaged in various activities that bring the Nepalese people and their friends together in the spirit of fellowship, mutual respect and strong community building.

MISSION

To promote goodwill and understanding among people of Nepalese origin and Canadians at large in the development of a strong Community while fostering multicultural spirit of Canada.

OBJECTIVES

- To preserve and promote Nepalese language, culture and heritage.
- To provide opportunities for social and recreational interaction among members.

- To help newcomers of Nepalese origin in their initial settlement.
- To maintain the special bond and foster the relationship with Nepal.
- To promote and support programs aimed at personal development of children, youths and seniors.

- To establish and develop a Nepalese Centre in Edmonton.

- To engage in charitable and community development initiatives.
- To collaborate with other like-minded organizations to meet the society's objectives.
